CPRP is an acronym for Certified Park and Recreation Professional. Certification is earned by education, work experience, and a written examination. The staff member maintains the professional status by collecting a required number of Continuing Education Units (CEU's) every two years through attendance at conferences, workshops, and other sources. PPRP is an acronym for Provisional Park and Recreation Professional. This certification is awarded to applicants that have met the requirements of Certified Park and Recreation Professional, but are waiting to take the written examination. Once they have passed the exam, they will achieve the highest level of certification (CPRP).

Park District Board of Commissioners

Tom Keating, President
Rich Janiec, Vice President
